FINLAND

Northern strength

“Finland – country that was ranked the most stable, the safest and the best-governed state in the world. Finland’s judicial system is the most independent in the world, its companies are the second most ethical and its citizens enjoy the highest levels of personal freedom, choice and wellbeing. Finns are also the third most gender-equal in the world and have the fifth lowest income inequality.

These are just some of the reasons why Finland has been named in the last years the happiest place on earth to live.”
